

LYNDEN MILLER IN BOSTON

PARKS, PLANTS, AND PEOPLE: BEAUTIFYING THE URBAN LANDSCAPE

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 2009

One Financial Center overlooking the Boston Greenway

6 pm – 8:30 pm

Catered reception / reduced on-site parking

Lynden Miller, well known NYC public garden designer, will speak about designing, maintaining, and funding beautiful, four-season plantings for public places. Her garden projects in NYC have become urban oases with economic benefits and the power to transform the way people behave and feel about their city.

Lynden will sign her new book, Parks, Plants, and People: Beautifying the Urban Landscape, after her presentation.

JOIN COGdesign and friends !

Our Host Committee includes Peter Del Tredici, Senior Research Scientist for the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University; Ted Landsmark, President, Boston Architectural College; Beatrice Nessen, co-founder, the Garden of Peace in Boston; Antonia Pollak, Commissioner, Boston Parks Department; Linda Jean Smith, President, Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts; Anita Walker, Executive Director, Massachusetts Cultural Council.

Sponsors and hosts include members of many greater Boston municipal and community groups. Reception with hors d'oeuvres and wine.

For advance tickets at $25, visit www.cogdesign.org and use Paypal; receive a $5 discount towards the purchase of Parks, Plants, and People for signing.

ABOUT LYNDEN MILLER

Lynden Miller's life-long work is creating beautiful gardens in challenging locations. She has been featured on the Martha Stewart Show and in Fine Gardening, Horticulture, and House Beautiful magazines. Her message about the fundamental necessity of healthy green spaces is critical for today; her new book documents the 'how to' of her success. Learn more about Lynden Miller on her web site www.publicgardendesign.org.

Major Sponsors:

NELDHA
New England
Landscape
Design & History
Association
www.neldha.org

Community Outreach Group for Landscape Design

For more details: www.cogdesign.org